Theological Perspective:

- I am a conservative Christian. I believe that the Bible is the true, complete and final revelation of God to humanity. It is my sole guide to life, faith, and practice.

Testimony:

- I was raised in a non-Christian home. I started living on my own when I was about 15-16 years old. In 1982, I was converted to Christ and never looked back. After serving in my local church for two years, I sensed God's call to the ministry. I felt that a Business degree coupled with a theology degree would serve well. I went to school and worked my way through college and seminary, as my wife remained a full time mother. I have served in leadership positions through the years on various boards, ministries and churches. Through my ministry experiences, both in and out of the church, God has taught me the significance of abiding in Christ, walking by faith and living out a Biblical worldview.
